

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Mary had a little drink—
I'm sure that she knew better,
But gossip said that in a cab
'Twas very hard to get her.

CHALLENGES WINNER

Miss Anna Bell Ward of This City
Wants a 5-Mile Swimming Try-Out With Miss Barnard.

Training for a swim by being pursued around the house and through the fields thereabouts by her brothers is the way Miss Anna Bell Ward of Maysville prepares herself for a swimming race. Miss Ward was one of the contestants entered in the women's race on Monday, but she could not start because of a sudden attack of illness. Just after Miss Frances Barnard of Dayton, Ky., finished first in the race, Monday, Miss Ward challenged the winner for a five-mile race. Miss Ward believes she has good grounds for a challenge, as she says she did three miles in the Ohio river in 1 hour and 25 minutes, which she says is 13 1/2 minutes better than the time in which Miss Barnard negotiated the same distance. The young women swimmers use different strokes in swimming. Miss Barnard uses an over head stroke, while Miss Ward employs the Australian crawl. The Maysville young woman won a swimming race when she was 14 years old. The race took place in Lake Michigan off Chicago. In addition to that Miss Ward says she has won all of the races held at Maysville. She says her chest and lungs have developed wonderfully. She is a singer, and she says the continuous practice that is necessary for a singer has helped her "wind" to such an extent that she can swim five miles and not feel fatigued. She also is a tennis player. Miss Ward shows her versatility by managing a picture show in Maysville. Miss Ward is willing to swim at any time that will be suitable for Miss Barnard, either this year or next.

MRS. ARMOUR'S LECTURE.

Mrs. Mary Harris Armour, the "Whirlwind from Georgia" entertained a crowded house at the Courthouse last night with a two hours talk on Prohibition.

Mrs. Armour presented her arguments in favor of Prohibition in a clear, forceful way and made every word count.

The lecture was pronounced by many as the best ever given in this city or county.

Lord Kitchener, who commands the British army in his first speech in the House of Lords said:

"THERE WILL BE SERIOUS CON-FLICTS WHICH UNDOUBTEDLY WILL STRAIN THE FORCES OF OUR EMPIRE."

Paris, France, Aug. 26.—The war of the air has issued the following:
"The commander in chief, requiring all available forces, has ordered the progressive abandonment of occupied territory. Muelhausen has again been evacuated."

"A new battle is in progress between Maulbeuge and Donon. On it hangs the fate of France. Operations in Alsace and along the Rhine would take away troops upon which victory might depend. It is necessary that they all withdraw from Alsace temporarily in order to assure its final deliverance.
It is a matter of hard necessity."

Belgium has refused Germany's offer of peace and although devastated, will fight to the last man.

Wireless Berlin dispatch says a concentrated advance of all German armies toward Paris is probable.

Germans say they captured 150 guns and 10,000 prisoners and that the army of Gen. Joffre, the French commander, has been broken up.

The River Somme, Longwy and the greater part of the Belgio French frontier are in German hands.

The allies say that their offensive operations having failed, they have retreated to their first line of defense preparatory to another advance.

Five forts and the city of Namur
have been captured by the Germans.
The fall of four other forts is declared imminent.

Alsace and Lorraine have been deserted by the French troops.

The French army in the Vosges mountains retreated, fearing it might be cut off.

Germans attacked Malines, thirteen miles from Antwerp.

English newspapers say the English and Russians will "fight to the finish."

Russians claim that the defeat of three German army corps was turned into a rout.

Ostend dispatch says 25,000 Germans have been surrounded between Courtrai and Anseghem.

Allied fleets reported to have destroyed fortified port of Cattaro, Dalmatia.

Servians and Montenegrins claim an other victory over the Austrians.

Claimed that of 5,000 men of the Strasbourg garrison who went into action, only 1,800 returned.

German Zeppelin airship dropped bombs upon Antwerp, one landing near King Albert's palace. It was finally brought to earth by artillery.

BACK AND ON THE GRIND.

Messrs. A. C. Carr and W. T. Davis are home from Cincinnati, to which point they accompanied Dr. Phillips and Messrs. Hauke and Burke on the trip to Denver.

The report that Messrs. Davis and Carr were to accompany the others through to Denver was erroneous. Neither of the young men could leave his business for so extended a trip at the present, though "Jack" would no doubt be as much at home with his Indian on the Mojave as riding the camel across the burning sands; and Davis, who is one of the most conservative of road men adds to his "Safety first" motto the one of "Get by."

While in the Queen City the boys had their headquarters with The Remelin
Co. on Main street and the indefatigable kindness and courtesy of Mr.
Remelin, one of the chief scouts of the motocycling world added immensely to the enjoyment of their stay there. Mr.
Remelin numbers his medals by the dozen and his friends by hosts, and "See Rem" is the pass-word of hundreds of tourists.

Phillips, Burke and Hauke left Cincinnati Sunday noon, going by way of Indianapolis. They carry with them the good wishes of the "bunch" and their scores of friends for good luck and a great time. "Sure! They'll get by, if anybody can," says the "bunch."

The trip to Cincinnati gave Davis an opportunity to try out his powerful new mount, and since he made a perfect score, comin' and goin', he says he's "tiredly satisfied" with her performance under all conditions. He says the yellow beauty is "some boat," a peach and a pipkin.

The boys entered Covington by way of the historic "Stringtown" pike, through the Knoblands, famed in history and romance.

'Twas a great time. May they all go again and often.

TWEED-SMITH.

Yesterday, Mr. John M. Tweed of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Miss Lucille M.
Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. H.
N. Smith of this city were granted marriage license.

The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride tomorrow by the Rev. Dr. John Barbour.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

Of the Mason and Fleming County Colored Teachers' Institute.

The Institute convened at the appointed time with Rev. R. Jackson of the Bethel Baptist Church as conductor of devotional exercises. Each teacher responded to their name by giving a short talk on some of the causes that are most detrimental to our race. Some of the subjects that were ably discussed
were: Indifference, Whisky Traffic, Unreliability, Extravagance, Lack of Confidence, Non-Respect for Girls on the part of boys and Self-Respect on part of Girls, Not Being Punctual, and others.

Prof. M. T. Martin, chairman of the program committee called for the program as outlined by the syllabus. The subjects that were ably discussed and lauded were: How to Teach Primary Arithmetic, Miss Frances Strawder;
Home Geography, Miss Eva McConico;
Reading in the Second Grade, Miss Elizabeth McAllister; Manual Training,
Prof. Martin and Davis; Agriculture,
Prof. R. L. Dent; Management and Discipline, Prof. W. H. Humphrey; Miss Allen, Correction of Language Lessons.

All these subjects were discussed in a manner so as to give each teacher practical ideas as to their use.

Domestic Science and Nature Study were elaborately discussed by the instructor. He said that where the teacher had not the facilities for teaching Domestic Science in the schoolroom, they could give the children recipes and they could bring back samples of the results. And that Nature Study awakens sympathy and strengthens the will to do right.

Prof. Button, Supervisor of Rural Schools of Kentucky, was introduced and gave us an interesting talk of his visit to Booker T. Washington's School at Tuskegee, Ala. He also said to inspire the boys and girls our school rooms should be adorned with pictures of our distinguished men and women and that our libraries contain some books of our own writers. We highly appreciated Prof. Button's talk and tendered him a vote of thanks for the same.

We are still encouraged and impressed by the way Prof. Wood is conducting our institute and the teachers who are not inspired by his simple and practical ideas of teaching may as well give up right now as failures.

A special program will be rendered by the Institute Thursday evening at the Bethel Church. Prof. Wood, Institute Instructor, will be the distinguished speaker.

Major John Walsh and sons, Harry
L. and Ones, and Col. Jas. A. Wallace are rusticated at Ruggles Campgrounds.

SLIGHT SMASH-UP.

While driving up Second street in his Ford yesterday morning, Mr. A. M.
Casey of the county had a little smashup.

He was driving East and when in front of Traxel's the back wheels skid-ded and headed the machine for the White Hall Hotel. The back wheels slipped again and the front wheels struck the curb in front of Geo. H.
Frank & Co.'s store and turned the machine completely around.

The damage was slight, only one wheel being broken.

Mr. Casey was unhurt.

The Central Garage rendered "first aid" to the machine.

MOTORCYCLE HEROES HEARD FROM

Friends in this city are in receipt of picturesque postal cards from Mr.
Frank Hauke, the popular postman, who is now on a motorcycle tour to Denver, Col. The last message was from Indianapolis, and reports a dandy trip.

ABOUT THAT TRIP.

Ask "Doc" about the four-footed pedestrian who disregarded "safety first."

Ask Jack about the lantern that made "The Merkle Light."

Ask Davis to tell you about Hauke's thesis on the uses of ice.

KITCHENER OF KHARTOUM.

Destiny seems to have reserved Kitchener of Khartoum for the present hour in England. His appointment as head of the British war office in the existing crisis is the capstone of a career which fate seems to have shaped especially for such a contingency.

It sometimes seems as if Providence creates and then reserves men for some definite, if for the time remote, purpose and that neither ill fortune nor the temporary reverses which all men encounter affect the ultimate end. Wellington was reserved for Waterloo, Grant for the Virginia campaign, and so on through a long list. It may be that Kitchener of Khartoum, whose career has certainly fitted him directly for the grave responsibilities he has now assumed, has been following the same ordained path of destiny.

It was Kitchener who was picked for the terrible campaign in Khartoum and for the closing months of the Boer war. It was the same man who especially fitted to handle the complex problems in Egypt. It was Kitchener who was slated to tranquilize the restless anarchists of India. And there he would have been today with the greatest task of his career before him, had not destiny recalled him and placed suddenly in his hands one of still greater responsibility.

A genius in military science, a master hand in organization and a dynamic force in driving things to a conclusion, Earl Kitchener of Khartoum, like Sir Edward Grey, may have been raised for this very hour.—Times-Star.

$1,820,000,000 A YEAR.

Wage earners of the United States are getting a total of $5,000,000 a day less than when the Republican Tariff prevailed in the country. That is not psychic but a condition. It means a loss to the wage earners of $5,000,000 every day in the week and for 52 weeks a year, Sundays and all, and no vacation. And that means $1,820,000,000 a year. This is nearly twice as much as it costs for a reasonable government for the United States. There is no tolls repeal bill to improve that condition for the wage workers. There is no mediation. The South American republics do not consider it any of their business. Mexico goes along with its wars and side issue troubles with the administration at Washington regardless of the tremendous losses of the wage earners of this country. There is not even a psychological state of mind applied to that big loss of nearly two billion dollars. Nobody seems to care about it. The tent on the grounds of the White House is not tipped over by strikers who object as wage earners to being robbed of almost two billion dollars a year. The faith of the people of this country is past understanding. The income tax on the rich is bringing in only about $23,000,000 a year, while the wage workers are losing $1,800,000,000. The difference is the price paid for the glory of the democracy.—Worcester Telegram.

SIC 'EM, TOWZER!

"Doctor's orders or not, I will stomp Louisiana this fall," said Colonel Roosevelt in a letter received by Progressive leaders.

Why don't he go to Europe if he wants to fight. The only real fighting is going on there.

President Wilson might have used Bradley's motto: "Sit steady in the boat."

OKLAHOMA'S GOOD FORTUNE.

The defeat of "Al" Jennings—widely advertised as a former outlaw—for the gubernatorial nomination in Oklahoma is good fortune for Oklahoma, irrespective of the merits of Mr. Jennings, who seems now to be a most exemplary citizen.

A "past" is rarely entirely lived down. That of "Al" Jennings has been, to use a term of newspaper parlance, "played up." Capital has been made of it. The candidate wrote a book about his moral reconstruction, and it was published during the canvass. There is no disposition upon the part of the Courier-Journal to animadvert upon Mr. Jennings, concerning whose antecedents it knows nothing that has not appeared in print and has no curiosity.

But States cannot afford to become sponsors for well-advertised and self-advertised former outlaws. The popular inference would have been, had Mr. Jennings succeeded in using his career as a horse upon which to ride into office over the royal road of hero worship, that because a man has been a "bad man"—rather than because he is no longer so—Oklahoma is ready to give him preference.

"Beating back," as Mr. Jennings terms it in his book, is highly creditable. There should be a place in private life for a man who was once wayward and has returned to the straight road. But there are reasons why his occupancy of the position of Governor would be undesirable in its actual effect within the State as well as to constitute rather doubtful advertising of the State beyond its boundaries.—Courier-Journal.

And der Crown Prince is also showing that he can also swart a few frogaters when it comes to the test.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

Honest labor is the best wheel of fortune. Many a man's self-conceit is due to ignorance. Experience would fail as a teacher in a correspondence school.

Many a young man buys flowers for an heiress as an investment.

"Faithful are the wounds of a friend"—and frequent.

All the world loves a lover—he makes such an exhibition of himself.

Genuine friendships deserves to be preserved in something else than alcohol.

No man is competent to be a King who loses his head while trying to save his face.

It is impossible for a man who isn't in love to write a love letter that sounds foolish enough.

As a general thing, if a man gets what he's worth he isn't subject to the income tax.

Our idea of a noble ruin is a castle that was torn down to keep it from shading the crops.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

The Cosmopolitan.

A warrior bold
Sat down and sighed,
Because he could
Not fight, he cried.

The warrior sat on the stump of a log and sobbed.

"Why the weeps?" asked the philosopher, who, going by, happened to be passing.

"I am in a quandary!" cried the warrior.

"Why not move over? Surely the whole seat isn't wet," suggested the philosopher.

"You don't understand. I am a warrior by right of heredity, and I want to fight. But there are insurmountable obstacles. I would join the German army, but I have two cousins in the Belgian ranks and I might shoot them. I can't join the French because my stepbrother and my brother-in-law are Uhlans, and I wouldn't want to shoot them for the world. And I have relatives in the English, Russian and Hungarian armies. Oh, I am in a quandary!"

"Listen to me and be happy," said the philosopher. "I am in the button business—little patriotic buttons with the flags of the various warring nations on them. Be one of my salesmen—when you sell to a German you can tell him what you think of the English and the French and vice versa."

"Deliverer!" cried the warrior, and accepted the job on the spot.—Louisville Times.

WARD TESTIMONY

Many Maysville Citizens Have Profited By It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. These are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments—are endorsed by over 30,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy—have proved its merit in many tests. Maysville readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Maysville citizen.

Henry Gallenstein, blacksmith, Poplar St., Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best of kidney remedies. I have used different kinds and no other has ever equalled this one. When my kidneys were out of order and I had pain in my back, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They stopped the pains and my kidneys became strong. The cure has been permanent."

Mr. Gallenstein is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you—don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Gallenstein had—the remedy backed by home testimony. See all stores, Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back Is Lame—Remember 'The Name.'"

NEWSY NOTES FROM EPWORTH

The people in this part of God's heritage are surely being fed on the "finest of the wheat" when it comes to a continuous spiritual uplift. The campmeeting with its powerful influence for righteousness—so recently closed, followed by a number of soul-stirring prayer meetings, the great basket meeting at Tabor and now a series of revival services at Galilee in which denominational lines are laid down and all church members are lining up together for the purpose of fighting sin and bringing souls to Christ.

The evangelistic services being held at Galilee since August 18th, continue to grow in interest and the house is crowded to its capacity each evening. Rev. Roy H. Biser, the speaker is a young man of rare ability and his expounding of the scripture in a plain, pointed practical manner, is uplifting and inspiring.

As Mr. Aleck Reeder was driving from Glenn Springs to his home near here Saturday last, his horse went through a hole in a bridge and its leg was broken. It had to be killed to end its sufferings. Many of the bridges in this community are in a most deplorable condition and not at all safe to be driven over after nightfall.

Ruggles Campground.
Mrs. Albert Warder is recovering from a severe illness. Dr. Fugit is attending her.

Rev. T. W. Levy went to Brownboro, Saturday to fill the regular appointment of Rev. Biser, who is doing evangelist work at Galilee.

SALOONS OR NO SALOONS.

Often it is said that when you touch a man's pocket book, you touch his heart. But it never seemed so sadly true as in the present issue of "saloons or no saloons."

We hear not the question of which is right, nor which will count for health and long life, nor which will make happy homes and good citizens. But the one cry of objection from those who would keep the saloon is "property, taxes, revenue, commercial interests."

Must the streets of the city be paved and lighted with blood money? One boy in four is the victim of strong drink. Do you barter your own or your neighbor's son?

We knew that liquor clouded the brain and blinded the eyes and dulled the sensibilities of those that imbibed. But until this time we had not known that its very presence had the same effect upon some of those who only see and smell it from day to day! Scenes on the streets of Maysville on Saturdays, court days and holidays are surely enough to touch the pride of any good citizen.

In the presence of such sights, can silent indifference continue even in business should suffer and taxes should increase? It may cost something to have a decent town. But the records of dry towns show that in most cases business has flourished as never before. Prosperity has taken the place of object poverty. Money that before was worse than squandered has gone into useful channels. Men are no longer incapacitated for work and can support their families. The chief cause of the heavy burden of crime, poverty, and insanity being removed; the public funds may be used to benefit the community instead of supporting those made helpless by the traffic.

More than once it has been clearly intimated that Maysville could take care of herself without the county's help. "What business has the county here?" Until now the county's products have found welcome market and have gone far to furnish Maysville's food supply. Until now our patronage of those markets, stores and banks has found a warm welcome. But where corruption for revenue is concerned, you are independent! Do you take our products and our dollars and return the blighted lives of our strong young men?

This fight is our business for the reason that self-preservation is the first law of life. It is our business because as law-abiding citizens we have a right to protection. Our very lives are endangered. It is our business because of the inalienable rights granted to Ken-

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Ensey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

tuckians by our Bill of Rights. "The right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties. The right of seeking and pursuing their safety and happiness."

Liquor traffic is the greatest enemy of our greatest institutions, the home, the school, and the church. Therefore it has no moral right to continue. It has no good excuse for its own existence.

In a Kansas case it was decided by the Supreme Court of the United States to be "a business in which no one may lawfully engage."

Sixteen of Kentucky's counties are preparing for the battles in September. The States around us not already dry are making ready for State-wide prohibition. This is a national movement, even a world movement. We can only answer for Mason county just now. We must sweep before our own door before going out to clean up the world. Which will it be on September 28th business or boys, houses or homes?

What is the wealth of the world without the priceless treasures of peace and safety, health and happiness? The strength of manhood in this proud, old county must protect its youth and defend its homes.

adv. MARY A. FINCH.

Don't fail to be at the Courthouse this evening at 8 p. m. to hear Mary Norris Armour, "the Joan of Arc" of the Temperance movement. One needs but to hear her to be convinced of the justness of the cause she represents.

Everybody welcome.

THE CHAUTAUQUA SALUTE.

A subscriber at Mt. Sterling sends the Courier-Journal a clipping from a religious newspaper in which a Texas minister assails the Chautauqua salute as "unsanitary and dangerous." The following extract indicates the line of his argument:

"I sat for eight days in the General Conference room in Oklahoma City and there was hardly an hour, day or night, but that the atmosphere in the room was almost thick enough to float one's hat, and every time the janitor lowered a window some old croupy fellow who was dying for the lack of pure air would jump up and pull the window down. But on top of all this impure air some nervous individual would pull off an occasional Chautauqua salute and empty out the germs from a thousand handkerchiefs on the already highly polluted atmosphere."

The writer goes on to say that in the interest of the public health the Chautauqua salute ought to be abolished by common consent. He makes the sensible suggestion that "the healthful exercise of hand clapping should take its place."

The ventilation in public buildings frequently is of negligible character. In such a case as is cited at the Oklahoma City meeting it may be readily imagined that a general waving of handkerchiefs is likely to put in circulation the germs of tuberculosis, grip and other diseases—and that, too, under highly favorable conditions for disease distribution. Unfortunately there is a very large proportion of the human family that remains to be educated in the matter of proper ventilation. A Chautauqua salute in the open air with handkerchiefs of immaculate cleanliness might be harmless. In a crowded and poorly ventilated building the germ-bearing possibilities of hundreds and thousands of handkerchiefs in active service are appalling.—Courier-Journal.

QUAIL SHOOTING

Promises To Be Unusually Good—Season Has Been Favorable For Development of Birds.

Frankfort, Ky.—Quail are reported much more plentiful this year than for the last two seasons, said J. Q. Ward, executive agent of the State Game and Fish Commission. A shortage of cover, due to the prolonged drought, he believes will make the sport exceptionally fine when the season opens the middle of November. Last year unseasonable floods washed away the nests at brooding time, and the year before floods and cold weather got many of the birds. At the same time pot hunters were slaughtering and shipping out of the State hundreds of thousands of birds. By co-operation between the State and Federal departments that has been made too hazardous an occupation to be profitable and Kentucky is rapidly being restocked.

The streams likewise are being replenished with game. The drought has helped the fish through the spawning season and been beneficial to the fry placed in the Kentucky and other rivers by the Government fishery service. The fish spawn in the small tributary streams. Freshets cause the spawn to be washed away and the little fish torn from the protection of the mother to be devoured by enemies or killed by the sediment held in suspension. The lack of freshets has permitted the spawn to develop in shallow water and protected the fry cast in these tributary streams.

Mr. Ward said Government experts declared Kentucky streams as a whole the best fish streams in the country. Most of them have rocky bottoms, where the fish can hide and where fish food thrives. This latter element determines the growth of the finny population of any stream or body of water. Numerous tributaries also help as they afford proper spawning environments.

She is Frances Barnard, 15 years old, of Dayton, Ky. She is a member of the Highland club, and she learned to swim only a year ago. She weighs 119 pounds. She made the distance in 1 hour 38 1/2 minutes. Of the nine contestants, only one failed to finish. She was Martha Miltz of Cincinnati.

"I could have gone two more miles I'm sure," remarked Miss Barnard as she emerged dripping from the water. There was a big crowd on hand to greet the nymphs after their long water journey.

Miss Anna Bell Ward of Maysville, Ky., was the only contestant who did not appear, and it is thought she was delayed.
